GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT:
wisdom, understanding,
counsel, fortitude, knowledge,
piety, and awe and wonder in the presence of God (fear of the Lord)

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

*There are different kinds of spiritual gifts
but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same
God who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.*

1 Corinthians 12:4-7

What are your gifts from the Holy Spirit?

Are they given to you only for your own benefit?

"The laity, dedicated to Christ and anointed by the Holy Spirit, are marvelously called and equipped to produce in themselves ever more abundant fruits of the Spirit.

For all their works, prayers, and apostolic endeavors, their ordinary married and family life, their daily labor, their mental and physical relaxation, if carried out in the Spirit, and even the hardships of life, if patiently borne—all of these become spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."

Vatican II, Constitution on the Church
(1964) 34

Anyone who is admitted should identify themselves as Catholic and a member of St Luke the Evangelist Parish in order to be placed on the Catholic list to be seen by a priest.

If admitted through Emergency or Out-Patient, the Admissions clerk should also identify you as Catholic. The rest of us can also be involved in this hospital ministry by remembering the patients in our prayers.

RESPECT LIFE THOUGHT:

“The Church must speak out in today’s context on fundamental rights, the right to justice, the right to peace, but above all and in the first place, the right to life.... The Church’s precise duty to society is to intervene with word, and also with example—the example of promoting human life, of intervening for the salvation of mankind.”

Bishop Elio Sgreccia, Vice-President of the Pontifical Academy for Life
