NOVEMBER IN LITURGY

We are now drawing to an end of the liturgical year; the church uses this time to encourage us to reflect on the end times and the day of God's judgment. We reflect on death and resurrection.

In our parish we have placed our Book of the Dead, in which we have written the names of parishioners who have died in the past year, next to the Baptismal Font to recall that we have been buried with Christ in baptism so that we may rise with him to newness of life.

EVENING OF REMEMBRANCE

Sunday

November 4

7 pm

An Evening Prayer in remembrance of our loved ones who have died. All members of the parish and friends are invited.

VOCATION VIEWS

Can I risk sharing the goodness
God has given to me?
Can I care for the needs of my brothers and sisters?
Can I respond to God as a priest, brother, or sister? (Luke 19:1-10)

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY

ton Hospital every other Sunday.

There will be training for liturgical Eucharistic Ministry on Saturday,

TEACHER FEATURE

Mrs. Dianne McGeer

Word on the street was that St. Luke School “had a good vibe” and was THE place to be. That’s what first attracted Mrs. Dianne McGeer to explore a teaching position at St. Luke’s. Once she arrived, she agreed that St. Luke’s WAS the place to be, and is starting her second year with us, teaching all subject areas (except science) to our sixth grade.

Before joining St. Luke’s faculty, Mrs. McGeer spent three years teaching at Holy Martyr’s, then two at St. Joseph-St. Robert (SJ/SR) in Warrington. When SJ/SR began to downsize due to declining enrollment, Mrs. McGeer applied for and secured a teaching position at St. Luke’s. She made a conscious decision to teach at Catholic Schools during her career, so it’s no surprise that Religion is one of her favorite areas of study. She also is very interested in Social Studies.

Mrs. McGeer grew up in the Olney section of Philadelphia, attended Incarnation School, and graduated from Presentation in Cheltenham. Her high school years were spent at Cardinal Dougherty High School. Mrs. McGeer has fond memories of Dougherty, and had a wonderful experience there. After graduation, she went on to earn a B.S in Elementary Education from Temple University.

Mrs. McGeer resides in Rockledge with her two-year old son, Aidan Michael. Free time? With a two-year old in the throes of the “tortuous two’s” and a full-time job, there is very little free time for Mrs. McGeer! Every once in a while, she does manage to carve out some time for herself to garden, golf, and enjoy some of her favorite Will Ferrell movies. She also gets together with friends and does some SNOW TUBING at Spring Mountain in the winter!

Thanks to Mrs. McGeer for allowing us to peek into her life this week in Teacher Feature!

Indeed, it is the duty of the whole People of God...to alleviate as far as they are able the sufferings of the modern age. They should do this too, as was the ancient custom in the Church, out of the substance of their goods, and not only out of what is superfluous.

BICENTENNIAL MOMENTS

Did you know?

Since 1962, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia has celebrated the canonization of Saint Martin de Porres, a Black Catholic saint of the Church. Born in 1579 in Peru, Saint Martin became a Dominican Brother and is known for his love for the Eucharist and service of the poor. The Saint Martin de Porres Mass, held on the first Sunday of November, welcomes all to experience the history, spirituality, and culture that African Americans offer to the Catholic Church.

1. The first recorded baptism of a Black Catholic person in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia took place on April 17, 1743.

2. The Third National Black Catholic Congress was held in 1892 at Saint Peter Claver Church, 12th & Lombard Streets, where Archbishop Patrick Ryan offered Mass for the delegates.

All are welcome to celebrate the great feast of Saint Martin de Porres on Sunday, November 4, 2:30pm at the Cathedral.

RESPECT LIFE THOUGHT:

So great is the confusion at times that for many people the difference between good and evil is determined by the opinion of the majority, and even the time-honored havens of human life—the family, the law and medicine — are sometimes made to serve the culture of death.

At such a time, Christians must act. This is a fundamental demand not only of discipleship but also of democracy, which flourishes “when people of conviction struggle vigorously to advance their beliefs by every ethical and legal means at their disposal.” (Living the Gospel of Life, 24)
