ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life.

In the month of March, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to help the poor as they carry their cross of suffering and pain, by assisting several families with food and utility and rent bills.

SODALITY AND MIRACULOUS MEDAL NOVENA DEVOTIONS

No Sodality on Tuesday, March 30, Holy Week, as well as Tuesday, April 6, the week after Easter.

All parishioners are welcome to join us on Tuesday, April 13 for our devotions at 7 pm.

Sodality dinner tickets will be sold on that evening. Due to cost increases the tickets will be $20.00 per person.

WEB SITE OF THE WEEK

The Holy Thursday Chrism Mass at the Cathedral will be streamed live on www.archphila.org beginning with the Procession at 9:40 am.

FAMILY CONVERSATIONS

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Gospel Highlight: Luke 23:34—
“Then Jesus said, ‘Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.’”

Key Idea: The Lenten season draws to a close as we enter Holy Week—the highpoint of the Church's liturgical calendar. The dramatic events that we recall on Palm Sunday will draw us into the very mystery of Jesus' suffering, death, and Resurrection. At the moment of greatest abandonment and isolation, Jesus prays that God will forgive those who crucify him. He forgives every sinner as he takes on the sin of the world. The events of this week are not a distant historical reality that we ponder from afar in the abstract. For us as Christians, the events of Holy Week are offered as a pattern for daily life. Jesus' Passion, dying, and rising are a pattern for our daily lives as disciples of the Lord.

Take 30 (Seconds): Reflect or pray in silence.

Share: How does God's Word today invite us to enter more fully into the mystery of the Cross, death, and Resurrection of the Lord? To whom are we called to extend a forgiving word and thought? Are our hearts and minds open to receive the forgiveness that Jesus offers to all from the Cross? Share how the readings of Palm Sunday are a pattern for your daily life.

Pray: (Repeat each phrase after the leader.) We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you / because by your holy Cross / you have redeemed the world.

STARTING THIS WEEK

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP FOR FRIENDS & FAMILY

This group meets on alternate Tuesdays at St. Luke Chapel House, 2330 Fairhill Ave, from 7 to 8:30 pm. Sponsored by William R. May Funeral Home (no fee), meetings are facilitated by Deborah K. Gawthrop, who has her Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology and is a certified Grief Management Specialist. The first meeting of the Spring group will be Tuesday, March 30. The topic is Special Days & Dates.

SUMMERSTOCK NEWS

Forms are in the rectory for anyone interested in putting their name in the lottery. Those who will have completed grades 1 - 3 will be in the junior lottery, and those who will have completed grades 4 - 8 will be in the main show lottery. Summerstock is for St. Luke Parish Members only.

The last days the forms will be accepted will be March 28 and the drawing will take place that week. Everyone who submitted their name will be contacted through email by April 3.

There will be a general committee meeting on Thursday, April 8, at 7 pm in the Chapel House. Anyone interested in helping with the production this year is welcome. If you are interested in helping but are unable to attend or if you have any questions regarding Summerstock, please email Marcie Fiorella at slsummerstock@verizon.net.

HAITI BENEFIT

CRAFT SALE April 24 & 25

You are invited to shop for beautiful and fairly traded gifts, housewares, accessories, and other hand-crafted items from artisans and farmers living in developing regions by attending our sale in Fr. Fitzpatrick Hall, following Masses on Saturday evening, April 24, and Sunday morning, April 25.

This is an excellent place to shop for Mother's Day and Father's Day gifts and graduation gifts.

This sale is arraigned through Work of Human Hands—a project of Catholic Relief Services in partnership with SERRV.

10% of the proceeds of the sale goes to our Sister Parish in Haiti, some of the proceeds goes to Catholic Relief Services, and much of it goes to artisans and farmers living in developing regions.

READY FOR SPRING?

READY FOR BASEBALL?

The Home and School Association is partnering with the Reading Phillies and offering ticket booklets for sale. Ticket booklets contain 6 tickets each. They maybe used for any regular season home game for the coming season.

Cost: $27.00 per booklet. The face value of this booklet is $48.00. You will be billed by the Reading Phillies when you receive your tickets. We will receive $9.00 for every paid booklet.

NEW ALTAR SERVERS

There will be training in April for those who wish to be altar servers. Open to members of the parish who are currently in grades 5, 6, and 7. Sign up sheets will be sent home with students in St. Luke School and PREP. Training will be done during school time. Other parishioners who are interested, please contact Jeanne Kyle at the rectory, stlukerc@aol.com or 215-572-0128.

OVER 50'S CLUB

The next meeting of the Over 50's Club will be on Tuesday, April 6, at 11:30 am. It will be held in Father Fitzpatrick Hall. We will have our usual buffet. There will be a presentation on seniors and taxes and other financial matters. It should prove to be most interesting.

Also, our spring luncheon, being held at the Sandy Run Country Club, will be on Wednesday, May 5. Tickets will be sold at our regular meeting on April 6. This will be the last meeting before our luncheon, so don't forget to get your tickets.

Anyone wishing to go to this luncheon, even though not a member, is more than welcome. Tickets are $25 and a good time is always had by all. You may call Marie Winstanley at 215-886-3863 for tickets.

ACME TAPES

Acme is discontinuing their Tape Saver Program as of April 30, 2010. If you have any tapes, please have them in by April 15, 2010. Acme will send out the final payment May, 2010.

HOLY THURSDAY GIFTS FOR THE POOR

At the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday we bring gifts for the poor as our offering. This year, in addition to food for St. Malachy's Food Cupboard and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, we will collect cash and gifts for Depaul House. Suggestions: men's toiletries, SEPTA tokens, bed and bath linens, kitchen ware (pots, pans, flatware, dishes) for start-up apartments, dish and laundry detergent, cleaning supplies, DVDs and books (used is fine).

Depaul House is situated at Immaculate Conception in Germantown and offers 25 homeless men aged 18 upwards the opportunity to progress towards independent living. Depaul House provides the move-on/resettlement link in a multifaceted plan to reduce homelessness. One of their key partners is Project HOME.

HOLY THURSDAY IN THE YEAR OF THE PRIEST

On Holy Thursday, parishes across the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will begin the solemn observances with the Liturgy of the Hours. [At St. Luke we will have Morning Prayer at 10:00 am, offered for priests and priestly vocations.] Then, Cardinal Justin Rigali will concelebrate with all of his priests the Holy Thursday Mass of Chrism at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul. On Holy Thursday, the Church recalls the institution of the holy priesthood by Christ Himself. During this Year of the Priest, all are invited to attend, view or listen to this Chrism Mass.

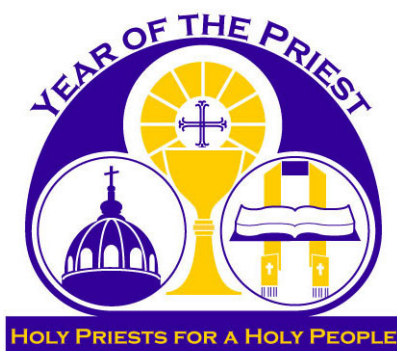

The Chrism Mass will be streamed live on the Archdiocesan web site www.archphila.org beginning with the Procession at 9:40 am. Mass begins at 10:00 am and will also be broadcast live on Holy Spirit Radio 1570 AM (WISP) and 1420 AM (WCOJ) and on The Catholic Channel on Sirius 159 and XM 117.

During this Mass, Cardinal Rigali will consecrate the Oil of Chrism and bless the Oil of Catechumens and Oil of the Sick. These holy oils will be used throughout the Archdiocese during the coming year in the celebration of the Sacraments.

This Mass is a clear expression of the unity of the priesthood and the sacrifice of Christ, which continues to be present in the Church.

Later in the day on Holy Thursday, parishes will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper. [Mass at St. Luke will be at 7:30 pm.] At the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, Cardinal Rigali will celebrate this Mass at 5:00 pm. After the homily, following the example of Christ who washed the feet of the apostles at the Last Supper, the Cardinal will wash the feet of twelve seminarians from St. Charles Borromeo Seminary.

This Mass commemorates the Last Supper, during which Christ instituted the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist, the Sacrament of Holy Orders and gave us His commandment to love one another. Please pray that our continued observance of this Year of the Priest truly provide the Archdiocese of Philadelphia with holy priests for a holy people!

GOOD FRIDAY WALK

11:45 am April 2

Join our ecumenical, prayerful walk through Glenside with a cross, beginning at St. Paul's, Roberts & Mt. Carmel Avenues, going down Easton Road to the Post Office and returning.

REMEMBER: Bring bells to ring at the Gloria on Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS WITH CARDINAL RIGALI GOOD FRIDAY

7:30 pm St. Charles Seminary. Parking will be at Saint Joseph's University (entrance to parking lot is on 54th St. below City Avenue). Shuttle buses will be available for transportation to and from the Seminary beginning at 6:30 pm. (No parking will be available on the Seminary grounds.) Candles will be provided at the Seminary (suggested offering - $2.00 per candle/protector). If you are planning to attend, please call Kathy Kelley at 215-965-8280 with the number expected to participate for planning purposes).

Keep our sister parish,
Notre Dame de la Presentation, in Los-Palis Haiti in your prayers.

THE THREE DAYS TO SAVE

WHAT WE DO FROM HOLY THURSDAY TO EASTER SUNDAY

Holy Thursday brings the end to Lent. That night we begin the three days that are the center of our year. Please take a few moments to read these pages. It asks: Why are these three days so important? What do they mean for you? It invites us all to make these three days different from all the days of the year.

From mid-winter to the end of springtime, the Church keeps the great Paschal Season. It has three parts:

40 The Forty Days are not literally forty; this number evokes all the other uses of “forty” in the scriptures. These are the days of Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Holy Thursday. They are days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In these ways we try to become as fully as possible the baptized people we are, living by the Gospel—and so we prepare to baptize the elect.

3 The Three Days are between the Forty and the Fifty. The Triduum (Latin for “three days”) begins Holy Thursday night and continues through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. The climax of the Church’s whole year is in darkness between Saturday night and Sunday morning. The Church keeps vigil, baptizes the elect, and celebrates the Eucharist. The Three Days conclude on Sunday afternoon.

50 The Fifty Days are the days of Easter season, from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday. They are the time of birth, marriage, festival, and feasting. They are like the wedding of earth and heaven, Christ and the Church. The early Church allowed no kneeling and no fasting and sang “alleluia” constantly.

We begin as Holy Thursday ends

Thursday evening we enter into this Triduum together. After listening to the scriptures, we witness the washing of the feet. The priest-celebrant goes down on his knees with a pitcher of water, a basin, and towels. Jesus gave us this image of what the Church is supposed to look like, feel like, act like.

Next we take up a collection, but not the usual collection (which is for the Church and the poor). The liturgy makes it clear that tonight’s collection is only for the poor. So bring the money you have saved with Lenten fasting. Like the washing of feet, this is a re-

The Three Days, this Easter Triduum, is the center, the core of the year for Christians. These are days to save and to savor.

Adults in the community are invited to plan ahead so that the whole time from Thursday night until the Easter Vigil is free of social engagements, free even of work, free of entertainment, free of meals except for the simplest nourishment. We are asked to fast during Good Friday and to continue fasting, if possible, all through Holy Saturday as strictly as we can, so that we come hungry and full of excitement to the Easter Vigil. We make Good Friday and Holy Saturday free for prayer and reflection and preparation and silence. The Church is getting ready.

Whether you are young or old, currently active in the parish or not, please set these days aside. All of us should know that our presence for the liturgies is not just by invitation. We are all needed here. All of us need this whole community together on its greatest days.

On these three days, we gather a number of times with each other. Together we hear some of the Church's most beautiful prayers and scriptures and we make some of our finest music. Please look closely at the parish schedule and make plans to take part in the various liturgies and other gatherings of Holy Thursday night, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Above all, come on Saturday night for the Vigil.

hearsal for Christian life. Then we celebrate the Eucharist. The evening liturgy has no ending: Whether we stay to pray awhile or leave, we are now in the quiet and peace and glory of the Triduum.

And we continue through Good Friday and Holy Saturday

We gather quietly on Friday and listen to Scripture, including the Passion from the Gospel according to John. We pray at length for all the world's needs.

Then there is another once-a-year event: The holy cross is held up in our midst and we come forward one by one to do reverence with a kiss or a bow or a genuflection. All the while we sing, not only of sorrow but of the glory of the cross.

We continue in fasting and prayer and vigil, in rest and quiet through Saturday. This Saturday for us is like God's rest at the end of creation. It is Christ's repose in the tomb.

Until the Night between Saturday and Sunday

Hungry now and full of excitement, the Church gathers in the darkness and lights a new fire and a great candle that will make this night bright for us. We listen to some of the most powerful scriptures in our Bible: stories of creation, Abraham and Isaac, Moses and Miriam and the crossing of the sea, poems of promise and rejoicing, the Gospel of the Resurrection.

Then we pray to all our saints to stand with us and we go to the font and bless the waters. There the elect renounce evil, profess the faith of the Church, are baptized, and anointed. All of us renew our Baptismal promises. For us, these are the moments when death and life meet, when we reject evil and give our promises to God. All of this is in the communion we call the Church. So together we go to the table and celebrate the Easter Eucharist. Easter day begins and we are ready for Fifty Days of rejoicing.

And then on Easter Sunday Alleluia is our song
